Mr. Harmon was born in Duxton, Me., April 1, 1842, and came to Island Pond when 19 years of age. He started work in the old steam mill for I. Dyer, making headings. In January 1863, he was married to Roxana Stevens; the same month he enlisted in the 29th Mass., Reg., Co. K., where he faithfully served 22 months in the war of the Rebellion.

Mr. Harmon was closely identified with the G. A. R. affairs, being a charter member, and he was honored with the office of Commander twice.

Mr. Harmon resided in the house in which he died 41 years. He was the father of 14 children, 11 of whom are now living. A widow and one brother also survives.

The funeral was held from his late home, Sunday afternoon, L. B. Jones reading the prayers of the Episcopal burial service. The remains were placed in the tomb.

Valentine Party

A very successful Valentine party was given by the pupils of the grammar grade in the school building last Friday night. The time was spent in promenading, etc., and refreshments were served. A tidy sum was added to the treasury.

Well Supplied

The water supply of a number of towns about the state is very low but Island Pond is more fortunate as John Osborne, when he went to inspect the reservoir yesterday, not only found it full, but overflowing, forming a good sized brook. It was not even frozen over.

TWO TEAMS THIS YEAR?

A score or more baseball fans were treated to a little excitement Wednesday evening when they gathered in the Municipal Court Room in response to a notice posted relative to the forming of a ball team, electing a manager, etc. The Base Ball Ass'n. which has conducted affairs for the past two years, met a couple of weeks past and elected their officers and manager, but it was evident that certain parties were not pleased with the selection and in consequence called a meeting of their own. The meeting waxed stormy at times, many pointed remarks being hurled promiscuously, the outcome being that two sets of officers and two managers are now in the field. The matter was at a deadlock for some time but after a lengthy debate, those empowered decided to arbitrate leaving the selection of a manager up to three disinterested parties.

The ball players as a whole, are backing the old management, and the others have secured the lease of the grounds—so there the matter stands—ball team on one side, with the opposition in possession of the ball park.

The old management gave winning ball last season at a minimum expense and were financially ahead at the end of the season, it not being necessary at any time for individuals to dig down in their jeans to tide the team over, as has been the case in the past, and it seems unfortunate that a few disgruntled persons should threaten to spell the doom of local baseball, for such would be the case as this town is too small to support two teams.
